

OFFICE MARKET OVERVIEW

JAMES BENGALA, Senior Associate

The office market is undoubtedly picking up steam in North County San Diego. Remote workforces are returning to the office and in-place tenants are negotiating long-term renewals. Landlords continue to offer additional concessions in higher-vacancy projects while still holding firm to market lease rates. Sales transaction volume remains healthy with ample investment activity and a continued push of owner-user buyers, fueled by sellers looking to cash out and extremely attractive interest rates. The NCSD office market is ripe for continued activity as major industry players identify the area as a low-cost, high-value alternative to the more densely populated L.A. and S.F. marketplaces. Overall, the office sector is primed for increased activity in 21Q4 and 22Q1.
